About This Book

The Best of INSidermag.net Book was conceived in the year 2001 but due to the publisher's failing health there was obviously a substantial delay in releasing the book. This book is also already compiled and completely designed and edited to an 8.5"x11" format. There is also enough content of significant interviews to produce a second book of identical concept.

Sarah Jessica Parker, Ethan Hawke, Jennifer Aniston and the cast of Dawson's Creek. Jon Stewart, Red Hot Chili Peppers and Julia Louis-Dreyfuss. David Duchovny and Jodie Foster. What do all these famous names have in common besides the fact that they're famous? You guessed it, an appearance in The Best of INSidermag.net, providing comprehensive insight to how the stars began and what they plan on doing next. Flipping through the delicately-glossed-over pages of this book, you will find INSider's top 56 interviews trailing back over 24 years, quenching your thirst to thrust backwards into time in search of what ignited today's most successful role models. How did David Schwimmer land the role of Ross Gellar in Friends? Did Jay Leno always want to be a late-night talk show host? What is Leah Remini's favorite movie? These are all questions so excessively asked, but never really exquisitely answered, until now!

Collaborating works from former INSider writers such as John Griffiths, currently writing for People Magazine, Yvonne Duran and Art Director for Shape Magazine provide successful renditions to such significant pieces of work. The Best of INSidermag.net also revamps the past by introducing now-famous stars from the beginning, helping shape their identity, talent and success and continuing to offer the public with interesting, juicy tidbits. While surfing through the pages of various actors, singers, comics and athletes, watch the artists evolve into masterful, intelligent individuals struggling to maintain a name and an image. Over a 24-year time span, INSider Magazine has accumulated 96 pages worth of INdepth, humorous material in which we now long to re-release to the world and we only ask that you sit back, relax and enjoy! You are about to embark into the world of stardom, unleashing secrets, truths and real claim to fame.
